KYLE BROWNELL TO HANDICAP THE DERBY FUTURES &
TEACH “HANDICAPPING 101” AT PGR MEETING

Saratoga Springs, N.Y. – Kyle Brownell, nationally recognized handicapper and OTB host will guest speak at the monthly Parting Glass Racing meeting on Thursday, January 22, 2009 at 7:00 p.m. at the Parting Glass Pub, 40 Lake Avenue, Saratoga Springs, New York.

In the first of our series leading up to the Kentucky Derby, the January meeting will feature Mr. Brownell with a focus on 2 items: for the neophytes, Mr. Brownell offers Handicapping 101: learn to read and analyze the Daily Racing Form, including Past Performances, charts, speed figures and all other DRF nuances, to maximize the racetrack handicapping experience and increase winnings. For the veterans, Mr. Brownell will discuss and handicap one of the best kept betting secrets in the world of horseracing: the “Kentucky Derby Future Wagers”. The audience will get expert wagering advice on placing winter book bets. According to PGR’s Managing Owner, Tom Gallo, “You can get a huge price on a horse that might 40 to 1 now but will be 2 to 1 in May. It’s not just fun ~ your winter book bet could be one of your best bets of the year!”

Kyle Brownell has been the horse racing handicapper and racing analyst for The Post-Star (Glens Falls, N.Y.) since 2002, and ranked as the top handicapper at the 2006 Saratoga race meet. He is a regular television host of several programs on the Capital Off-Track Betting (OTB) Television Network and has been a panelist at racing seminars for the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame and the Albany Tele-Theater.

Parting Glass Racing was founded by Tom Gallo and Joan Desadora (owner of The Parting Glass Pub) in 2001. With more than 300 members, Parting Glass Racing, LLC is the umbrella organization managing multiple partnerships and horses. A member meeting is held every month at the Parting Glass Pub with guest speakers from the racing industry.
