FREUD BREEDING OF PARTING GLASS RACING HORSE HIGHLIGHTED IN DAILY RACING FORM ARTICLE BY MIKE VEITCH

Saratoga Springs, N.Y. – Columnist Mike Veitch posted an April 27th article about the success of Freud fillies that appeared on the Daily Racing Form's (DRF) website, www.drf.com. The Parting Glass Racing partnership "This Angel Has Wings" owns a 2005 filly by Freud out of Axspect. The two year old filly is training in Florida with Gayle Woods and is anticipated to race at the Saratoga Racetrack this summer. As Mr. Veitch noted in the DRF article, Freud is represented by 13 runners who have won or placed in stakes competition, with cumulative progeny earnings of $2.4 million. He is a 9-year-old son of Storm Cat out of Mariah's Storm, by Rahy, making him a full brother to leading young sire and European Horse of the Year Giant's Causeway.

This Angel Has Wings currently has units available for purchase. For more information, please visit <http://www.partingglassracing.com/racehorses.cfm>

Parting Glass Racing, Saratoga's original racing partnership, was founded by Tom Gallo and Joan Desadora (owner of the Parting Glass Pub in Saratoga Springs) in 2001. With more than 150 members, Parting Glass Racing, LLC is the umbrella organization managing several partnerships and horses.

Freud fillies proving successful

By MICHAEL VEITCH

Led by his impressive daughter Mighty Eros at Aqueduct, young sire Freud was in the news last weekend.

Mighty Eros was a dominant winner of the $100,000 New York Stallion Park Avenue for 3-year-old fillies at seven furlongs last Sunday.

A big filly with a smooth stride, she stopped the clock in 1:22.40 for the distance, remaining unbeaten in two career starts.

Bred by Becky Thomas and Lewis Lakin, Mighty Eros is owned by Hedgewick Stable and trained by Thomas Bush. She joins Quick Little Miss and Flirt for Fame as stakes winners from Freud's first two crops to race.

Mighty Eros is out of the stakes winner Mighty Emy, by Mighty Adversary. She is a half-sister to three stakes winners, including Mop Squeezer, who placed in the Grade 3 Sabin Handicap.

Mighty Eros sent her career earnings to $84,600. She was purchased for $55,000 at the Ocala Breeders' Sales Co. February 2-year-olds in training sale in 2006.

Freud also is the sire of Elusive Flash, who finished third in the Group 3 Dubai Duty Free Stakes at Newbury, England, on April 21.

The New York-bred 3-year-old filly was bred by Thomas and Lakin and foaled at Lakland North in Hudson, N.Y. Elusive Flash is out of the Exclusive Era mare Giana, making her a half-sister to multiple-stakes placed Sweeping Analysis, an earner of more than $330,000.

The family also includes Lake of the Isles, winner of the Little Silver Handicap and Post-Deb Stakes, both Grade 3 events.

Elusive Flash's effort marked the 32nd time this year that a New York-bred finished in the top three in an open stakes event.

Freud is represented by 13 runners who have won or placed in stakes competition, with cumulative progeny earnings of $2.4 million.

Freud is a 9-year-old son of Storm Cat out of Mariah's Storm, by Rahy, making him a full brother to leading young sire and European Horse of the Year Giant's Causeway.

He stands at Sequel Stallions in Hudson, N.Y., for a fee of $10,000.

The $100,000 New York Stallion Times Square, also run last Sunday, was captured by Bustin Stones, who also remained unbeaten in two starts.

Bred and owned by Roddy Valente, of Troy, N.Y., the son of former state sire City Zip was timed in 1:21.20 for the seven furlongs.

Bustin Stones is trained by Bruce Levine, the New York Thoroughbred Breeders Inc. trainer of the year in 2005. The horse has earnings of $84,600.

He is out of the Prospectors Gamble mare Shesasurething, a half-sister to stakes winner Ryan's Moment.
